

2020 Winning submission

CTF T-Shirt Contest

MAGIC is looking for graphic design students to design this year's CTF 10 competition T-shirt. Designs that work well as both a full-color and single-color format are preferred. Winning designer/design will receive a $100 Amazon gift card and their work professionally published on our marketing materials and printed on our competition T-shirts. This is a great resume and portfolio builder for the winner of the contest.

We are celebrating our 10th Capture the Flag, so we have established a theme for this year's shirt design:

CTF X-Games

Let's get creative! MAGIC is looking for a themed design that encompasses the Extreme Game look and feel. We want the design to express the excitement, intensity, and competitive nature of competition. Have fun with it!

Design requirements are as follows:

- Limit of 3 design options per artist entry
- Submit a PDF document with your design options. Include your designs in a full color and black & white version. Each entry should be a separate page in the PDF file.
- The submitted file name should be as follows: Hlogo_firstname_lastname.pdf

- The design must incorporate somewhere in the design the CTF logo as well as MAGIC's work mark logo. Both logos can be downloaded from our website Media Kit page. They don't need to be front and center, but visible in the design.
- The design must have the event date present: April 24, 2021. It can be in any date format that is complementary to the design.
- The roman numeral X should be used somewhere in the design.
- There is no restriction or requirement on color scheme, But design should also be viable as a black and white option.

The winning submission will be required to submit a full file zip package including the following file types: ai, eps, png. The winner will also be required to submit graphic guidelines including font types used, color hex codes, etc.

The contest is open now and submissions should be received for consideration no later than Monday, March 8, 2021. The winning logo will be determined on or around March 16, 2021 and the designer will be notified via email at that time.

The winning artist will be required to sign an Artist Release form and the submission will become the intellectual property of Mid-Atlantic Gigabit Innovation Collaboratory.

Please send questions and submissions to info@magicinc.org.